High-Flying Haiku

A haiku is a three-line poem about nature.

Line one has five syllables. (5)

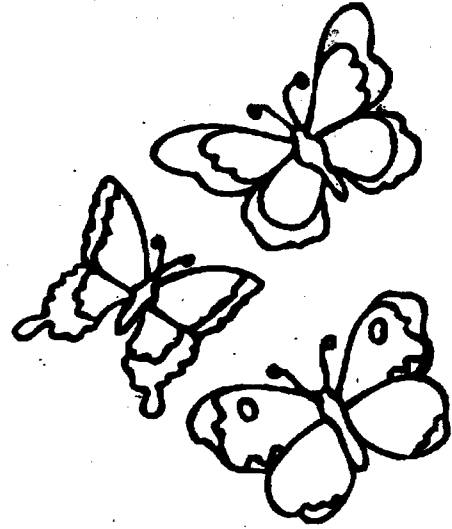

Line two has seven syllables. (7)

Line three has five syllables. (5)

Look at the haiku below.

Underline the syllables in each line.

A butterfly floats
through the summer air with ease,
a colorful sight.

On another sheet of paper, write a haiku about a butterfly.

Copy your haiku in your best handwriting on the lines of the butterfly below.

Color the other side of the butterfly.
