

ecology unit
entomology

In this science unit you will study insects. The study of insects is called entomology. For this unit we will be using these worksheets, our  web site and our textbook. You will need to read draw and answer all questions.

This work will be collected and graded _____ parent signature

This project needs to be finished by _____ student signature

_____ date

sally

Our unit goal is to work with insects to find out about how cells make up living things and living things, like insects, are grouped and classified.