

What scientists put in a field journal.

name _____ class _____ team _____ seat _____

date _____
Lesson 2

Used new words and art to record observations.  Lewis and Clark math formulas  Albert Einstein

Sketches of a boat and a landscape with handwritten notes. The boat sketch is labeled 'The boat' and the landscape sketch is labeled 'The landscape'.

A journal of a special location is intended to create a complete story of the natural history of an area. It might include observations of weather, plants, insects and other animals.

What types of information are included in these journals?

How might the type of information included in a field journal differ depending on the study?

Handwritten mathematical formulas and diagrams. Includes a bar graph with three bars of increasing height and a table with columns for 'Year' and 'Population'.

Albert Einstein

Leonardo da Vinci wrote in mirror image and in Italian

